RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Home Economics General Rules apply.
2. Entries may be made until Thursday, July 30, 4:00pm. If an exhibitor has 5 entries by this time they may make substitutions and additional entries the day of judging.
3. Exhibits will be accepted on Thursday, August 6 between 9:00am and 11:30AM
4. Comments will be written on entry tag during judging, exhibitors may watch.
5. No commercially grown or artificial flowers allowed. All entries should be garden grown, which the child has helped care for. Children are allowed to use parents or grandparents flowers for arrangements only.
6. Choose a container to best fit your entry. All entries are judged on overall presentation as well as quality of specimens and arrangement technique. Containers should be freestanding and able to hold water.
7. An arrangement is an artistic design of fresh-cut or dried materials arranged in a freestanding container. Foliage permitted in all fresh flower arrangements. Accessories permitted in all arrangements (use discretion).
8. Exhibits must meet requirements to be considered for premiums (number of blooms, stalks; type or size of flower). Fresh flowers cannot be colored.
9. All entries should be free of dirt and bugs. Dying blooms and buds should be removed.
10. Flower entered should be conditioned: cut the night before and placed in water overnight. A fresh flower will wilt before judging.
11. Leaves should not be below container rim. Use wedging to raise flower specimen up out of face.
12. Exhibits must not be removed until Sunday, 5:00pm and claimed before 7:00pm. Premiums and ribbons will be given out at that time. The exhibitor and/or superintendent can replace any wilted flowers after judging.
